

Curriculum Vitae – Patricia Yang

Present Position

PGY-III Emergency Medicine resident – Washington University in St. Louis

Education

Postgraduate: 2017-Present

Emergency Medicine Residency, Washington University School of Medicine/Barnes Jewish Hospital/St. Louis Children's Hospital, Saint Louis, MO

Graduate: 2011-2017

M.D. University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri

J.D. Magna Cum Laude, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri

Undergraduate: 2009-2013

B.A. Chemistry, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri

B.A. Biology, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri

Certificate of General Honors

Advocacy and Leadership

EMRA Medical Student Council Legislative Coordinator: 2016-2017

EMRA Residency Program Representative: 2018-Present

EMRA Leadership and Advocacy Conference: 2016, 2017

EMRA Member: 2016-Present

Missouri ACEP Council Representative: 2018

Missouri ACEP Advocacy Day: 2016-Present

Focus St. Louis, Board of Directors: 2008-2009

Focus St. Louis, Youth Leadership St. Louis Steering Committee: 2007-2008

Research and Scholarly Activity

Quality Improvement Initiative: Impact of Multi-Disciplinary Care Plan Coordination on Emergency Services Usage by High Utilizer Patients

Grand Rounds Presentation: Syncope in the ED: Not for the Faint of Heart

Resident Research Forum: Stressing the ED Stress

Resident Research Forum: Comfort Care at the End of Life

Resident Research: Missouri Adopts the Daubert Standard: Why it Matters to Physicians

Case Presentation: All in Vein: Central Venous Catheter Complications in the ED