Why advertising with EMRA is an easy decision.

EM Resident
Packed with timely clinical content, professional updates, and thought-provoking perspectives, EMRA’s official magazine — written by residents, for residents — is a proven difference-maker for your campaign. Published bi-monthly, 16,000+ copies are delivered to EMRA members, EM program directors and coordinators, academic advisors, and specialty leaders. Your display and classified advertising enjoys a long shelf life and strong engagement. Plus: Ask us about specialty advertising!

What’s Up Newsletter
We keep our members in the know via our monthly electronic newsletter, reminding them of important deadlines and new opportunities. With open rates more than triple the industry average, this channel offers incredible value. Space is limited; choose between a banner display ad or content marketing.

Conference Daily Newsletters
Twice each year, EMRA pulls out all the stops to meet our members in-person, hosting perennially popular EMRA events at CORD Academic Assembly and ACEP Scientific Assembly. We help our member attendees start each day of the conference with reminders about what’s coming up, recaps of what already happened, and why it matters.

Websites
We offer display ads on emra.org as well as emresident.org, our online home for the magazine. Engagement in both channels continues to grow! In 2018, emresident.org garnered nearly 210,000 page visits.

Mailing List Rental
Need to reach a select portion of our membership? Targeted mailing lists, available for rent, ensure you are delivering your message to the right people at the right time. Let us help you with your specific needs.
